Robert Vick, the Democratic candidate for Texas Senate District 22, has been endorsed by Charlie Stenholm, 13-term Democratic Congressman from Texas's 17th Congressional District. Stenholm served from 1979 to 2005.

“For too long the Texas Legislature has been missing members with real world experience in running a small business,” Stenholm stated. “Robert Vick knows what is needed to build a successful business that provided jobs for 22 families. As a small businessman, he learned the importance of public education and the key role it plays in the Texas economy. He learned the importance of affordable healthcare for working men and women.”

In writing about Robert’s campaign volunteers Stenholm notes how many are retired teachers. He asks, “What better recommendation could you have?”

Robert acknowledged the endorsement, saying, "Representative Stenholm has cast a long shadow across Texas politics and his steady unwavering support for rural Texans included many major pieces of agricultural legislation. I am honored that he recognizes the same level of commitment in me, and I assure him I will work as tirelessly for rural Texans as he did."

Senate District 22 includes Bosque, Ellis, Falls, Hill, Hood, Johnson, McLennan, Navarro, Somervell, and portions of Tarrant Counties.
