Robert Vick, Democratic candidate for Texas Senate District 22, was endorsed today by the Tarrant County Black Democrats, one of the largest and most powerful Black Coalitions in Texas. For more than 40 years, they have been at the forefront of driving Democratic voter registration and education. When election day comes, they are proven leaders in getting registered voters to show up at the polls.

Robert gratefully acknowledges the support of the Tarrant County Black Democrats and recognizes that the organization is helping to bring about a new season in Texas politics.

"Black Democrats are crucial to leading the Texas Democratic Party to statewide victory, and it's important that we not take their votes for granted. I am humbled and honored that they see the effort our campaign has made to reach out and work on their behalf. We cannot win without them. With their help, I am confident of victory in Texas Senate District 22 in November."

Senate District 22 includes Bosque, Ellis, Falls, Hill, Hood, Johnson, McLennan, Navarro, Somervell, and portions of Tarrant Counties.
